

"Yes Indeed"

Ma, yes indeed we love you but Jesus loves you more. That's why He opened heaven's gate and walked your thru the door. He knew you would be welcomed by those that's gone before. That's why you're up there smiling you knew just what's in store. We know it wasn't easy to say your last goodbyes but when you thought of heaven you dried your tearing eyes. Our tears may flow our hearts may ache as missing you is great we had to let you go instead so that you won't be late.

By: Pat Williams-Stenson

Pallbearers

Allen Woodson Raymond Langford, Jr.
Quintin Williams Nathan Williams

Flower Bearers
Family and Friends

Repast:

Please join the family in the church dining hall immediately following the funeral services.

Acknowledgements

The family of Ann McIntosh gracefully acknowledge with sincere appreciation, the comforting prayers, cards, calls, deeds and thoughtfulness expressed during this time of bereavement. May God richly bless you for your acts of kindness.

R. A. Prince Funeral Services
16222 Broadway Avenue
Maple Heights, OH 44137
Phone: 216-518-1777 Fax: 216-518-1975
raprincefuneralservices@yahoo.com

In Loving Memory Of Annie Williams-McIntosh

Sunrise:
May 6, 1935

Sunset:
August 28, 2019

Friday, September 6, 2019

The Historic Greater Friendship Baptist Church
12305 Arlington Avenue
Cleveland, Ohio 44108

Rev. Dr. Larry W. Howard, Officiating Minister

Order of Service

Ritualistic Service.....	ICUA Ushers
Order of Service
Processional.....	The Family
Scripture Reading.....	Old Testament:Psalm 27:4 Pastor Danny Hohn
Scripture Reading.....	New Testament.....John 14: 1-3 Pastor Danny Hohn
Prayer.....	Pastor Danny Hohn
Musical Selection.....	Rolanda Carter
Family Presentation.....	Venus Powers
Acknowledgements/Resolutions.....
Musical Selection.....	”Ole Rugged Cross”
Obituary.....	(Read silently)
Remarks.....	(Limit to two minutes please)
Eulogy.....	Rev. Dr. Larry W. Howard
Recessional.....

Interment:
Evergreen Memorial Park Cemetery
Bedford Heights, OH 44146

(Those driving in the funeral procession turn your headlights on, then off before entering the cemetery gates.)

Obituary

Ann McNabb was born, May 6, 1935 in Tuskegee, Alabama to Rev. William McNabb and Martha Chambers. Ann was the youngest of 10 children: Queen Deamus, Melony Chambliss, Emma Jackson, Floria Germany, Martha Mason and brothers Rev. Louis McNabb Coaty Lee McNabb and Willie James preceded her in death. Her remaining sister, Sarah Johnson currently resides in Atlanta, Georgia.

Ann loved the Lord and was baptized at the age of 12. Her life of faith was shaped as a young child growing up in the household of her father, Rev. William McNabb of Antioch Baptist Church and she also had an ordained brother. She attended New Revelation Baptist Church in Cleveland, Ohio and later joined the Historic Greater Friendship Baptist Church. She loved her church family and friends. There she was a devoted and dutiful member of Usher Board #2 where she faithfully served for many years and was a member of ICUA (Interdenominational Church Ushers Association of Ohio.)

Ann moved to Cleveland, Ohio in the 1950’s to be with her elder sisters Martha Mason and Floria Germany. Ann graduated from Macon County Training School. In 1960 she married Luther J. Williams who preceded her in death. By that union she was blessed to have four children, Janet Elaine Williams-Brewster, Sylvia Williams, Luther E. Williams and Patricia Williams (Stenson). All of whom she loved dearly.

She later married Harris McIntosh in 1975 who due to an illness preceded her in death. They were married for over 30 years.

She was employed by the Cleveland Public School system where she retired from Anton Grdina Elementary School where she loved the students that she served. After retiring she became a foster grandmother for the children in the afterschool program.

Although not perfect Ann was always strong in her convictions and believed in following the Good Book. By this she taught her children and grandchildren the meaning of love, and how to live in harmony & peace with one another. Through her unwavering love for the Lord and the example by which she lived her life, it taught many the lessons of understanding, forgiveness, helping others and acceptance. Ann Williams-McIntosh loved her children, grandchildren & great grandchildren even though many lived out of state. They made her laugh and she spoke of them often. In 2012 she moved in with her daughter Sylvia and two grandchildren, Little Al and Alisha “Lele” (who preceded her in death.)

Ann loved to tell stories. We marveled at her memory of events. She could remember in detail things that happened many years ago.

Ann Williams-McIntosh departed this life on August 28th 2019. She leaves to cherish her in loving memories: Her sister: Sarah Johnson, her daughters: Janet E. Williams-Brewster (Eduardo), Sylvia Williams (Adrian), Patricia Stenson (Michael), son Luther E. Williams (Chestina), grandchildren, Allen Woodson, Alicia Giles (Darrell), Raymond A. Langford, Crystal N. Webb (Terry), Latonia Davis (William), Quintin Williams, Rolanda Williams, Nathan A. Williams (Brandy); 18 grandchildren and 4 great-great grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.