

Broken Chain

Little did we know that morning that God was going to call your name in life we loved you dearly in death we do the same. It broke our hearts to lose you, you did not go alone for part of us went with you the day God called you home. You left us peaceful memories, your love is still our guide and though we cannot see you, you are still by our side. Our family chain is broken and life will never be the same, but as God calls us one by one, the chain will link again.

Obituary

Rosie Harris was born on, May 8, 1947. She was called home on November 3, 2019, in the comfort of her own home. Rosie was born in Madison, Alabama, to the late James Ayers and Narella Taylor Ayers, she was a sibling of 16 being the 7th child in birth order. Rosie grew up in a tight knit family, whom she loved dearly and remained close to.

Rosie graduated from Trinity High School, in Athens, Alabama. She relocated shortly after that to Cleveland, Ohio. She met and married Roosevelt Harris Sr., and from this union God blessed them with two beautiful children, Roosevelt Harris Jr., and Donzella Harris. Rosie worked hard to provide for her family. In 2010, Rosie retired from Northcoast Behavior Healthcare as a Therapeutic Program Worker, where she cared for her patients.

Rosie enjoyed, gardening, swimming, walking, listening to gospel music, talking on the telephone and spending time with family. She loved to attend every Ayers Family Reunion where she was known to dance circles around people. She was one of the sweetest people you could ever meet.

Rosie attended and served faithfully at Assembly Baptist Church. She served as the president of the Usher Board, Counting Committee, and Communion Ministry.

Rosie leaves behind to cherish her memories: son, Roosevelt Harris Jr., (lil Roe) , daughter; Donzella (Cookie) Harris, granddaughters: Latisha Jackson, Desirey Harris, Cherlyro Harris, grandsons: Antoine Baker, Roosevelt Harris III, great grandchildren: La'Miah Wagner, Perez Bolden, brothers, Wille B Ayers(Doris), Johnny Ayers , Robert Ayers (Lena), and Binford Ayers (Helen), sisters: Ella Warner, Lottie Hammons, Elnora Miller (Roosevelt), Georgia Allen (Vernon), Linda Ayers, and Joyce Ayers all of Huntsville, Alabama. Best friends: Juanita Brown, Patricia Carter and Betty Ballard and her "Mentor" Walter Bell Field .
