

Ecclesiastes: 3: 1-4

There is a time for everything and a season for every activity under the heavens: a time to be born and a time to die, a time to plant and a time to uproot, a time to kill and a time to heal, a time to tear down and a time to build, a time to weep and a time to laugh, a time to mourn and a time to dance.

Willie Henry Walker, was born near Greenwood, Mississippi on January 11, 1927 to Elizabeth and Willie Walker. He was the second of three children. Willie accepted Christ as a child and spent as much time as he could, playing his favorite game, baseball. At age 17, Willie left Mississippi and moved with his family to St. Louis, Mo., where he worked in a steel mill until he was drafted into the United States Army. He was honorably discharged after serving two years into the military.

He moved to Cleveland, Ohio in 1948 and was married to Marion Scaife. They were married for 10 years. In 1961, Willie met and married Gladys Stanley. Willie worked as a truck driver for the Federal Metal Company, in Bedford Heights, Ohio and retired after 30 years.

Soon after retirement, Willie found that he was not the type of person who could just sit around and do nothing. So, he started to do what he had always loved as a child. He began to work as a carpenter and handyman. Willie would say that he loved the smell of saw dust in the morning. With the help of a friend and fellow handyman, Willie would tackle almost any job that required a hammer and nails.

Willie loved to travel and he loved to spend time with his family and friends. He was a kind and generous person who always went the extra mile to help someone in need –Willie was a reliable and faithful friend to many. He was a loving father, grandfather and great grandfather and a tireless worker for his church.

Willie was preceded in death by his parents, Elizabeth Rinehart, Willie Walker; his brother, Eddie Lee Harris and his sister, Alice Rinehart.

He leaves to cherish his memory his wife, Gladys; his daughter, Cheryl Greenerl (Clifford); stepdaughter, Brenda Reese, grandsons, DeCavilon Reese (LaCresia), LeBrendt Reese, great grands, DeCavilon, Destiny Reese and Jamil Durdin; as well as a host of cousins and dear friends. We will miss him greatly.
