

"Alzheimer's Poem"

Do not ask me to remember
Do not try to understand
Let me rest and know you're with me,
Kiss my cheek and hold my hand.
I'm confused beyond your concept.
I am sad and sick and lost.
All I know is that I need you,
to be with me at all cost.
Do not lose your patience with me.
Do not scold or curse my cry.
I can't help the way I'm acting.
Can't be different though I try.
Just remember that I need you,
The best of me is gone
Please don't fail to stand beside me,
Love me till my life is done.

Acknowledgement:
Special thanks to Dr. Richard King and the Cleveland Clinic Hospice Center.

When it seemed our loss was too great to bear, we looked up and our family and friends were there. With flowers and words, written and spoken with faces smiling and hearts open. You comforted us and shared our grief. God will bless you and keep you granting all relief. Our gratitude cannot be adequately and expressed with mere words, but they are the best that we have to offer in saying "Thank You" for lifting the clouds and letting the sun shine through.
