

Don't Stand At My Graveside
As if to say goodbye, I am still here
I did not die. I stand beside you but you don't see me. I give you signs to show its me. My body has gone but my soul is free, under that stone
It is not me. I see, I touch
I smell, I feel everything they say about heaven is real. I see your tears
I hear your sigh, but please don't ever say goodbye. Just trust my words and carry on I am still here
I have not gone.

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair; perhaps you sent a floral spray, if so we saw it there. Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say; Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us that day. Whatever you did to console our hearts we thank you so much whatever the part.

Obituary

Beatrice Phipps was born on November 7, 1937, in Tuskegee, Alabama to the late Rasebe Hughley and Lilla B. Saulsberry. She was the first born of three, one brother Carston Hughley Sr. (deceased) and one sister Christine Eppinger.

She confessed to Christ and was baptized at an early age at Mt. Nebo Baptist Church in Tuskegee, Alabama. She was known as Bea.

Bea earned her high school diploma in 1956 and completed two years of community college training. Later she moved to Cleveland, Ohio. In 1971 she met and married Samuel Phipps (deceased) and to this union one son was born.

Bea worked at the Veterans Administration Hospital for 30 years and retired in 1991. After retiring she took care of her late husband. Bea loved to cook, she loved gardening, and spending time with her son and grandsons.

On Sunday, March 15, 2020, she departed her life after a short illness.

She leaves her loving memories to her one son: Samuel Timothy, two grandsons: Graham T and Branden J. both of Cleveland, Ohio. One sister: Christine Eppinger, three step-grandchildren: Errol Phipps, Yvonne Perry, and Everod Phipps. And a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
