

May I Go Now? By: Susan Jackson

Do you think the time is right?

May I say good-bye to pain filled days and sleepless nights?
It was difficult to stay I tried just one more day. I didn't want to go I fought with all my might, but something seemed to draw me to a warm and loving light. I lived my life, the best I could and now it's time; you know? My spirit will be close to you wherever you go. Thank you all for loving me-and know I loved you too. When you say farewell to me this day; God will see you through.

Obituary

Toneitha Tonnette Lamar, affectionately known as Necky Peeky to her family and friends was born and raised in Cleveland, Ohio, to the parents of Tonja Rose Fowlkes and James Keith Dubose. Toneitha was the oldest of her mother's 5 and the oldest of her father's 3 children.

Toneitha attended Cleveland Public Schools, and as a young adult Toneitha maintained employment in the fast food industry until she was unable to work due to hardships of life.

Toneith's favorite artist was "Lil" Kim", but she loved and listened to all music; including gospel on her personal radio. As she listened to what was playing Grandma Charlye, would always say "Necky Peeky how do you find all that good gospel music on that radio?"

Toneitha knew the Lord; she was introduced to church, by her grandmother Charlye, and in 1989 Toneitha joined Olivet Institutional Baptist Church and attended the new member's class, and began serving on the usher board at that time.

Toneitha lived with her maternal grandmother Charlye Jean Lamar who was Toneitha's caregiver, until she was admitted to the Cleveland Clinic Hospital, on January 28, 2020.

Toneitha was proceeded in death by a son, Timothy Lamar, maternal grandfather, Calvin Lamar, paternal grandmother, Helen and her paternal grandfather.

Toneitha leaves to mourn her passing her daughter: Tanyshia, grandmother: Charlye Jean Lamar, mother: Tonja Fowlkes (Darin), father James Dubose, siblings: Eddie, Johnny "Duke", Nyeshia "Lulu" Lamar, Kevin Lamar Lee, Kristopher and Brandon DuBose, aunts: Angela Lamar, Kathy Hearts (Wesley), and Linda Clemons, uncles: Eric "Erock" and Anson "Skeet" Lamar, Victor (Kathleen), Allen (Tammy) Dubose and a host of cousins, other relatives and friends who loved her.
