

Miss Me But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little-but not too long
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that we once shared
Miss me-but let me go.

For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan
A step on the road to home.

Obituary

Clarence Woodford Jr. was born in Columbus, Ohio, on September 20, 1962, to the parents of Clarence Woodford Sr. and Sarah Asbey.

He lived in Cleveland, Ohio and attended Addison and Martin Luther King Jr. High School.

He was married to Jacquelynne Woodford in 1988, who preceded him in death in 2011. He worked for the Salvation Army. He loved being with family and friends, having cookouts and having family dinners.

In his last years, his long time companion, Illyasah "Pookie" Stroud, took care of all his needs and prolonged his quality of life.

He leaves to cherish his memory his children: Tiffany Brown, Clarissa Wilson, Anissa Woodford, Clarence Jermaine Woodford, Tiana Brown, Charla Stroud, Carla Stroud, Joyce Waters, Elmo (Trey) Waters, grandchildren: Tyree Coleman, Autum Coleman, Jayden Neal, Eric Stroud, Seyairah Sweeney, Ronny Franklin and Kenny Borden.
