Obituary

Birth: Vaughn Deon Henderson, Sr., was born on March 17, 1970, to Helena and John Henderson in Emporia Kansas. Vaughn was the first of two children; he was the big brother of Dana Henderson.

Life: The Henderson family moved to Cleveland, when Vaughn was 3 months old. Vaughn graduated from Warrensville Heights High School in 1988. He received an Associates degree from the Art Institute of Pittsburgh in graphics arts. Later he attended nursing school. Vaughn has one son, Vaughn Jr., from his marriage with Deandra. He also has a nephew, Mylon Hayes that he considered more like his son.

Although he didn't belong to any specific religion he was very spiritual and philosophical. He had a strong belief in God and was a people person. Vaughn was a peacemaker and was always willing to help those around him. No matter what he had going on in his own life Vaughn was the rock of his family. He went out of his way to help everyone. He was funny and had a great sense of humor and an amazing conversationalist.

Hobbies: Vaughn had a love for music, he had self-taught culinary expertise, he was multifaceted in visual and graphic arts and could fix almost anything.

Survivors: Vaughn leaves behind to cherish his memory, his wife: Carolyn, mother: Helena Henderson, son, Vaughn Henderson, Jr., nephew, Mylon Hayes, one year old grandson: Zakai, sister: Dana Henderson, aunt: Colette Houston, uncle: Harold Cooley Jr.(Bernadene), cousins: Ginger Hasan-Strong, William Hasan, Leonore King (Charles) and family, Izell Houston (JaVonna) and family, Harold Cooley III (Tiffany), mother-in law: Selina Keith (Clifton), brother-in-law: Norman Allen Smith, sisters-in-law: Quenisha Smith (Darryl), and Tenesha Smith and stepdaughter: Junisha Threatt. And a host of family and friends.

Please do not be offended if you were not mentioned at this difficult time.

We Miss You
Our hearts still ache
with sadness, and many tears still flow. What it meant to lose you, no one will ever know.
We hold you close within our hearts, and there you will remain. To walk with us throughout our lives, until we meet again.
