Elsie Jackson was born in Seneca, South Carolina, on March 28, 1920. She was the youngest of five siblings born to Josephine Knox and Andrew Green both deceased.

At the age of fourteen she and her sister moved to Atlanta Georgia. There in Atlanta is were she met and married George Jackson.

During the World War II era, she and her young daughter relocated to Detroit, Michigan. By 1944 she relocated to Cleveland, Ohio and had another daughter.

Elsie main occupation was in housekeeping. Elsie spent most of her life taking care and babysitting kids. Everyone near and far knew her as "Big Ma".

Elsie was a member of Second Temple Church. There she was devoted to singing in the church choir.

Her favorite hobbies were gardening, canning, making home-made wine from grapevine and babysitting.

She was preceded in death by twin brothers, John Henry and Felix Green, her older sisters, Ellen Craft, Maybell Marshall and her daughter, Norrie Elizabeth Howard.

She leaves to mourn her passing her daughter, Elsie Renee, two granddaughters: Joyce (Melvin) and Kim, two great-grandsons: Quintin (Genesis) and Joseph, one son-in-law, William Howard and host of family, friends and cousins out of state.

Psalm 23

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul; He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil: for thou art with me:
thy rod and they staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before in the presence of my enemies:
Thou anointest me head with oil; my cup runneth over surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
