

Talking to Dave I would just say Dave take care of yourself I love you and Dave would always say, I love you too Mom.

Dave you know the window that was broke, and you were blamed and I spanked you for it. I was wrong I know from my own thinking that you were lied on and I am sorry. I love you Dave.

Dad

From Twinkie toes to little brother to brother, Dave I love you and miss you.
Eric Michael

One thing about my "little brother" he helped make me a better mom, because I started with him. I will miss going fishing with you Dave, God is good and we will see each other again,

I love you little guy.

Karen

David In the rising sun an in it going down, I will remember you; in the blowing of the wind and in the chill of the winter, I will remember you; In the opening of buds and in the rebirth of spring, I will remember you; In the rusting of leaves in the beauty of autumn, I will remember you; In the beginning of the years and when it ends, I will remember you: When I am lost and sick at heart, I will remember you; When I have joys I yearn to share, I will remember you: So long as I live, you too shall live, for you are now a part of me, as I will remember you.

Obituary

David Jesse Austin, was born September 8, 1962, in Cleveland, Ohio. He was the son of Jesse and Fanny Austin. He was the third of four children. He departed this life on December 8, 2020.

In his early years David played basketball, skied and played in the Baseball League at Saint Henry. He took drum lessons and he loved to play and sing with his sister Karen and his friends Bruce and Jimmy. They would sing at home and around the Stockbridge neighborhood.

He attended Cleveland Public Schools and graduated from John F. Kennedy High School. David completed his training and apprenticeship to become an Electrician, and in 1999 received his Journeyman Electrical Certification.

David began working early at Victoria Station restaurant, he then worked for Flying Tiger for a short period. He moved to Atlanta to work for the Sports Section as Head Printer with his cousins Bruce and Carolyn. Together they turned the company around and made it a success. David had exceptional work ethics leadership abilities and was always very prompt.

He returned to Cleveland and began to work as the Office Manager for his Uncle John's business, Artisan Electric, where he was inspired to pursue the electrical trade. He later worked for Gateway Electric until his retirement in 2020. David also worked for his own company D. A. Electric.

David loved the Lord and enjoyed family gatherings, especially Christmas when he and his brother Mike would hand out presents which the whole family enjoyed. He loved sports, fine dining, traveling and was always well dressed. He collected chess boards and most recently developed a love for fishing as he was able to relax and enjoy the challenge.

David leaves to mourn his parents, Jesse and Fannie Austin, his brother Eric Michael, his sister Karen Wright (Larry), his girlfriend Chestina Holly-Brown, nephews: Ronald Jr., and Matthew, nieces; Jessica, Pamela, Jackie and Jayla, great-nephews: Nathan, Nicholas, Neil, Nolan and Hakeem, Aunt Earline, Uncle John and Aunt Barbara, cousins and a host of relatives and friends.
