

The Broken Chain

We little knew that day, God was going to call your name. In life we loved you dearly, in the death we do the same.

It broke our hearts to lose you.
You did not go alone. For part of us went with you the day
God called you home.

You left us beautiful memories. Your love is still our guide. And although we cannot see you, you are always by our side.

Our family chain is broken & nothing seems the same, But as God calls one by one,
The chain will link again.

Obituary

In the word of the KING himself!

*If you are reading this then your black King & favorite celebrity has taken his one way flight home.
Please sit back and listen to a bit about me...*

I began my mission October 1, 1992. Blessing my loving mother Rhonda Ivy and father Jimmie Campbell Jr. with their first boy. Early in life my father married Ann Marie and the "Brady Bunch" began! As a young child I was able to enjoy the fulfillment of having a large, loving family. And I must add they are all funny- But I will always be the funniest! I cherished each and everyday laughing with all my siblings: Reshawne, JaVontez, Ciara, Alice, Raqwuan, Aaryn, Trenton, Reagan, Jimmie III, and Jimmil. I love each and everyone of you with all of my heart equally. I wouldn't change not a one thing about you all. I want you to keep my name alive by telling stories to my 15 nieces and 5 nephews.

The journey had only just begun. Unlike a lot of people I had been blessed to grow up in two cities, Cleveland, Ohio and Atlanta, Georgia. My roots in Cleveland prepared me for Atlanta. I went to the best schools while achieving the highest honors. Meanwhile I participated and excelled in all I put my mind to, from the debates to sports. I was taught to put God first and with this lesson I have been afforded the opportunity to reach goals and have accomplishments. I graduated in the top five of my class at Langston Hughes High School with honors. I studied at American InterContinental University where I received my degree in International business and Economics. Having a love for fashion enabled me to have the pleasure of styling celebrities which led me to founding Royalty Ent. & RJC Marketing group. I reached for the stars each moment in life while managing businesses like CVS Pharmacy to the FedEx Office. If I can do it you can too!

One of my biggest achievements must be the birth of my beautiful daughter Princess Lundy. Lundy I want you to know you are my sunshine. I loved you before I even met you. You were so teeny tiny and fragile as a baby. I knew from that moment on life as I know would be different. Being your father has brought me no greater joy. I'm so blessed and grateful to have you. Lundy do well in school for me, and listen to you mother and grandmother. In moments that you miss me and need me most remember I will never stop loving you. Wrap your arms around yourself, I will be hugging you right back. I am watching over you and through the friends and family I have left behind they will care for you as well.

And to you my special love, as your heart aches; I send you comfort in knowing that you are the love of my life, my best friend, partner in crime and no one can take that from the Prince, you nor I. It saddens me to say we didn't get to grow old together, now our love will forever be young. Like you once told me, my family is your family. So my parents, my sisters & brothers are now yours.

To my parents I have always appreciated you. I love all three of you and thank you for giving me the best life you could afford me. Through all the challenges life brought; you three gave me the space to be the "High Class Boss" that I am. Words could never explain what you mean to me.

As my mission comes to a close, to my siblings continue to make me proud, to my Gma, Momma Stella, Joe, and Freeman keep doing your thang!

And lastly, to my family and friends show
the world how the boss does it-

Always top Notch, five star, with endless success!
