

To Those I love... And Those Who Love Me

When I am gone, release me let me go. I have so many things to see and do. You must not tie yourself to me with tears, be happy, for we had so many years. I gave you my love and you can only guess how much you gave me happiness. I thank you for the love you've shown but now it's time for me to travel alone. So grieve a while for me, if grieve you must. It's only for a while that we must part, so bless those memories within your heart. I won't be far away, for life goes on. So if you need me, call and I will come. Though you will hear, all my love around you soft and clear, and when you must come this way alone. I'll greet you with a smile and welcome you home.

Acknowledgement:

Although we can never say it enough, we would like to take this time to express our appreciation and thank all of you for your love and support, and for the care and kindness that you have shown toward us. It is again greatly appreciated and will not soon be forgotten. We ask that you continue to remember us in your prayers long after this day is done, and likewise, we will pray that God will continue to bless each and everyone of you in return for all that you have done.

Obituary

Ronald Alonzo Hooks Jr., was born on May 29, 1966, in Cleveland, Ohio, to the union of Cornelia Hooks and Ronald Alonzo Hooks Sr., (deceased). In addition to the union was born, Richard A. Hooks, Rhonda A. Hooks and Rachelle A. Hooks (deceased)

He grew up in a loving home and was the oldest of four. Ronald was educated in the Cleveland Schools System until he transferred to Warrensville Heights, where he graduated in 1985.

He accepted Christ at an early age and joined Lee Road Baptist Church and was a faithful member. You often found him reading his bible and sending encouraging scriptures daily to a host of friends and family.

He held several jobs, he worked at the Federal Building, Dick Sporting Store and he worked for University Hospital of Bedford, Ohio. Ronald loved working with people, always smiling and cracking jokes.

He was an avid bowler, and sports activist. He won many trophies in both.

On Sunday, February 28, 2021, God called Ronnie home. He leaves to cherish his memories his mother, Corneila Jackson (Joseph), brothers, Richard A Hooks, Jamal Hooks (Joya) and Nicholas, sisters: Rhonda A. Hooks and Stacey Coutee, nieces: Kearra, Maya and Alanni, nephews, Justin D. Hooks, Jerome D. Hooks, Pharah and Jihad, loving aunts: Bobbie L. Whitley (Harry), Norma R. Waugh and Nichole Sims, loving cousins: Robert Waugh (Donya), and Herbert Waugh (Lori), and a large host of cousins and friends.
