

Dear Friends I Go-Forever In My Heart

Dear Friends I go, but do not weep
I've lived my life, so full and deep
Throughout my life, I gave my best
I earned my keep, I've earned my rest
I never tried to be great or grand
I tried to be a helping hand.
If I helped a team, if I helped on my own
It was more than repaid by good family and friends I have known.
And if I went the extra mile, I did it with pleasure
It was all worthwhile.
If I brightened your path, then let it be
A small contribution from my loved ones and me,
Now sadly I leave you and travel alone
Through a mystic veil to the great unknown.
With such beautiful memories
That will forever by the way that I hope
You'll remember me.

Obituary

Willie Craig Flanagan, was born on September 4, 1961, in Cleveland, Ohio, to the late Dorothy Lee Flanagan and Willie Brown. He was the fifth child of seven.

He attended East High School and Job Corps. Willie was known for clowning around with the children in his family and dancing to his favorite song "Take A Bow" by Rihanna. He was very overly protective of his six sisters.

He was preceded in death by his two sisters, Lisa Parker and Cheryl Harris, two nephews, Quinn Flanagan, Sr. and Ronnie Flanagan Sr. and one brother-in-law, Russell Parker.

He leaves to share in his memories: his four sisters, Marian Flanagan, Sandra Flanagan, Brenda Allen and Tanisi Flanagan, two Brother-in-laws, Ronald Watkins and Curtis Allen, six nieces Latrice Evans (Myron), Mila Kaniya (Tony), Tiera Flanagan, Mariah Flanagan (Tae), Kan'dejah Flanagan and Roniesha Flanagan, four nephews, Russell Flanagan (Kayla), Quinn Flanagan Jr., Quintin Flanagan and Ronnie Flanagan Jr., four honorary nephews, Willie Spencer, Eric Stevens, Jarrod Rhodes and Dalonte. And a host of nieces, nephews other relatives and friends.
