

God Saw

God saw the road was getting rough
The hills were hard to climb He gently closed
those loving eyes and whispered
"Peace be Thine"
The weary hours, the day of pain
the sleepless nights are past
The ever-patient worn out frame has found sweet rest at last.

Obituary

Stanley Leroy Sellers, Jr. was born in Cleveland, Ohio on February 4, 1948, to Annie Laurie (Johnson) Sellers and Stanley L. Sellers Sr. He was the first born of three children, and preceded in death by his parents. Stanley started his life on E. 40th Street, then to E.146th Street and finally Glendale Avenue before adventuring into his adulthood. During his childhood and teenage years he made many lifelong friends.

Stanley "Butch", as many friends and family affectionately called him, was a product of Cleveland Public Schools, where he attended Gracemount Elementary, Charles W. Elliott Jr. High and John F. Kennedy High School. After graduation he attended Central State University, graduating with a Bachelor of Science Degree in Business Administration.

Stanley was fortunate to have worked for several Fortune 500 Companies including Republic Steel, Sherwin Williams, Courvoisier, Gillette, as well as, Cuyahoga Community College and UPS where he was an account manager. Stanley was beloved at each of his jobs and was affectionately known as the "Mayor" of UPS from where he retired in 2013.

Stanley reconnected with the true love of his life, Sandranette (Sandy) Stallworth and they were married on, July 1, 2000. Stanley and Sandranette loved to travel. They spent over 20 years traveling everywhere from the Caribbean, Mexico, Hawaii, Alaska and many places in between.

Stanley loved golf and was an avid golfer until his health precluded his participation. Stanley belonged to a golf club called the Chicken Train with over 40 African American golfers at one time. He never missed Chickens Train's Annual Golf outings while an active member of the group. Stanley also looked forward to annual golf trips to Florida until his health prevented him from attending.

Stanley leaves to cherish his memories his loving wife of twenty years, Sandranette: children: Stanley L. Sellers, III (Nikia), Dionne Marie Sellers-Menefee (Anthony), Aaron Meredith Sellers, Jayson McDonald and Brett McDonald (Galena), his precious grandchildren: Assata Sellers, Autumn Menefee, Nathaniel Sellers, Kamyah McDonald, Kennedy Sellers, Jaden McDonald, Zoe Menefee, Nylah Sellers, Layla Sellers, Zuri Menefee, and Deonte Muldrow, cherished sisters, Rita Sellers, Charlotte (Craig ) Franklin, and sister-in-law, LaBrentha Stallworth; nephews, Andre Price, Kristopher Sellers, Shawn Stallworth (Angela), and Caleb Stallworth, niece, Savannah and a host of family and friends

Stanley's personality and sense of humor made him quite the entertainer. He never met a stranger! He made you laugh even if you didn't want to. Everyone has a "Butch" story. To know Stan was to love him. Stanley was a wonderful man and we will miss him.
