

The Broken Chain

We little know that day that God was going to call your name. In life we loved you dearly, in death we do the same.

It broke our hearts to lose you, but you didn't go alone. For part of us went with you the day God called you home.

You left us peaceful memories. Your love is still our guide, and though we cannot see you you are always at our side.

Our family chain is broken and nothing seems the same. But as God calls us one by one the chain will link again.

Obituary

William Stanley Jones, lovingly known as "Billy", was born on February 19, 1953, to Walter and Lucille Jones who preceded him in death on , May 26, 1999. Billy was the only brother to Ileta and Barbara. Billy attended and graduated from John F. Kennedy High School in Cleveland, Ohio in June 1973, and went on to pursue his education at Cuyahoga Community College. In 1975, Billy then enlisted into the United States Air Force Corps where he was stationed in Texas. Billy received an honorable discharge from the United States Airforce Corps in 1977.

At any rate, Billy was handsome, charming and full of mirth. Billy road horses on the weekends with his family. He was artistic and was a talented Artist who enjoyed painting. His painting technique was abstract. Billy loved music and some of his favorite famous groups and musician were, Tears For Fears, U2, Massive Attack, Jimmy Hendrix and the Pat Matheny Group, just to name a few. Billy enjoyed going out and was a good dancer with polished moves. He also enjoyed attending family functions. Billy loved to read and was a history and geography expert. In the early part of 1979, Billy met Robin Johnson and was abashed by her stunning beauty and femininity. In the spring of 1980, Billy and Robin welcomed home their new bundle of joy, baby girl, who Billy named Enjolie Noelle. Billy was such an attentive dad, excecuting and honing on his new role as dad. Billy accepted Jesus Christ as his personal savior and became a member of Gladstone Baptist Church early in 1986 and married Robyn on February 14, 1986.

Billy worked multiple types of jobs such as a security officer with Royce Security at Shaker Square, he was a cargo delivery driver with US Cargo express. In 1988, Billy went on to truck driving school where he would become a professional truck driver for the next 25 years. driving for companies such as M & B and Werner Enterprise. Billy loved traveling across the country from the East Coast to the West Coast. Also, to Mexico and Canada. Billy would take Robin and Enjolie with him, turning his work into family time, enjoying the many places they would visit.. Unfortunately, Billy and Robin divorced in 1994 due to irreconcilable differences.

In late spring of 1997, Billy re-married Darlene (Penny) Smith. Her smile warmed his heart. During this time Billy became a member of St. Paul United Methodist Church. At any rate, this passionate union ended a few years later.

Billy continued on driving trucks over the road until he obtained an injury limiting his mobility in his shoulder. Billy returned back to his home church, Gladstone Baptist Church, where he remained in his deacon role. Billy stayed busy by working in the music industry with local legends like the Kinsman Dazz Band and affiliating himself with a local boxing talent organization, the King of the Ring. Bill enjoyed traveling with his special friend, Brendetta McDonald and hanging out with his nephew, Dion "Peanut" Jones.

Billy always had a smile on his face and would go above and beyond to help others who were in need. His favorite scripture was Hebrews 13:5 "Let your conversation be without covetousness; and be content with such things as ye have: for he hath said. I will never leave thee nor forsake thee." Billy stood on that scripture, with all his might.

Billy leaves to cherish his memories, his loving daughter Enjolie Thurman (Ajamaal). His sisters, Barbara Jones and Ileta Tucker (Tony). Billy also leaves a special friend Brendetta McDonald, his loving neighbors, Paul Mixon, Leslie Bizeile and Gwen Russell a host of nieces, nephews, neighbors out of town, family members and friends who will miss him dearly.
