

Until We Meet Again
We think about you always,
We talk about you still,
You have never been forgotten and never will.
We hold you close within our hearts
and there you will remain.
To walk and guide us through our lives,
until we meet again.

Obituary

Ernest Legrone Jr., was born in Gordo, Alabama on October 4, 1956, to his parents, Mary F. Legrone and Ernest Legrone Sr., who both preceded him in passing. Ernest Jr., graduated from East Technical High School and after high school, he joined the Army. Ernest was a father of two, who both preceded him in passing, his daughter, Lilliam Monique Verde, and his son Arieson Romel Newborn.

Ernest worked at Supertrap for 13 years. He was Chairman of the Deacon Board at Christian United Missionary Baptist Church. He loved singing, being with family and friends as well as studying the Bible. His favorite quote was "The Train is Coming."

Also preceding him in passing to Glory were his grandparents, brothers, Tony, Anthony and Nathaniel "Craig", aunt; Billie, uncle; Robert Lee, and nephew; Lerob.

Ernest leaves to mourn his sisters: Brenda, Theresa, brother, Robert, brothers-in-law: Lawrence Sr. and Michael, sister-in-law: Elaine, aunts; Ethel Mae, Marion and Marie, uncles: Joe Clifford and Andrew, close cousins: Shirley & Shirjoma, nieces and great-nieces: Crystal, Charmeka, Moenaijah and Takyra, nephew and great-nephews: Nicholas, Lawrence Jr., Michael, and Marshawn and two grand-children and host of generational cousins and beloved friends.

Ernest train came to pick him up, now he is a passenger on the Glory Train.
