

"When God Calls An Angel Home"

When God calls an angel home, the sky opens up and the angels sing.
When they have served as good soldiers, and their bodies weak and torn,
God will say, its time to rest, for your work on earth is done.

And now I'll take you home to rest,
for all of your life you've done your best.
You have earned a place with Me, to spend your whole eternity. So wipe the tears from your eyes, for I'll be waiting for you on the other side.

Obituary

Born on September 17, 1964 Robert L. Jackson (Hoey), was the second of four children born to the union of Robert L. Jackson II and Vercie Jackson (deceased) Hoey accepted Jesus Christ as his Lord and Savior.

Hoey attended John F. Kennedy High School and later in life gained employment with Hubert Edgas Hauling Company. Early in life Hoey met Yvonne who he had his first child with, Latashia Jackson, later he met and married Jonetha and into this union two children were born; Kamea and Robert Jackson IV.

Hoey enjoyed the outdoors, he enjoyed his alone time, he was very outgoing and protective of his family. He was very strong and dominate and sometimes bull headed when getting his point across. Hoey was also very compassionate. Hoey enjoyed weight lifting and riding motorcycles with his friends. He loved Bruce Lee, Hong Kong Phooey, Kool Moe Dee and cooking mashed potatoes. Hoey loved spending time with his mother which was best his best friends.

Hoey was called home on September 18, 2021, to be with the Lord. He was preceded in death by his mother, Vercie L. Jackson.

He leaves to cherish his memories his wife, Marcea Gordon, his father, Robert L. Jackson II, his children, Latashia, Kamea and Robert IV, his sister: Barbara Jackson, his brothers: El Caarif "Tottle" Jackson (Marika), and Aki Jackson (Key), twelve grandchildren, nieces, nephews and a host of treasured family and friends.
