

God Saw
God saw the road getting rough,
The hills was hard to climb, He gently closed those loving eyes and whispered, "Peace be thine".
The weary hours, the days of pain, the sleepless nights are passed. The ever patient worn out frame has found sweet rest at last.

Love always,
Malisa

Obituary

Robert Charles Reynolds, was born October 1, 1930 to the late Sel and Versie Reynolds in Enterprise, Alabama. He was raised in Dothan, Alabama and the last living sibling. He was preceded in death by his two brother and one sister, Warren Reynolds, John Reynold and Wilma Reynolds.

Robert decided in the early 1940s to move up North to find work and migrated to Cleveland, Ohio, where he spent 39 years at LTV Steel as an Operator. Although he moved to Cleveland, Ohio he never missed a visit every year to see his parents in Dothan, Alabama. When he retired in 1995, he spent a month in his hometown every winter. He had a love for gospel music and was a long time member of the original gospel group called "The Cleveland Golden Echoes". Robert managed, sung and performed with many groups and raised his children on group rehearsals and church programs.

He also loved to fish watch sports and cook, he was best known for his homemade dinner rolls and a host of exotic delicacies of chicken feet, cow tongue and souse meat. Robert loved to dress up in suits, in his illness he hated he was unable to wear any of the fifty two suits he owned and over thirty pairs of dress shoes. Robert was very outspoken but he had a generous heart of helping others. He was always there to lend a helping hand. He will truly be missed.

He is survived by his wife, Pearl Reynolds, daughters, Linda Lewis, Theresa Ford, April Ford, Tracey Ford, April Ford and Malisa Ford, and a host of nieces, nephews, and grandchildren.

Humbly submitted,
The Family
