

"I Needed Rest So He Drew Me Aside"

A precious one from us has gone, a voice we loved is stilled, a place is vacant in our home which can never be filled. And after lonely heartache and many a silent tears, but always a beautiful memory of one we love so dear.

Obituary

William Campbell born April 25, 1927 to the late William Campbell and Della Howard. After birth his family moved to Rome, Georgia, later returning to Cincinnati, Ohio, where he graduated from Woodward Career Technical High School. After high school, he joined a semi-pro baseball team. He later moved to Youngstown, Ohio, taking a job at the steel mill. During this time he met his first wife, Joyce. From this union he was gifted with his first born, Tonya. Later, Bill moved to Cleveland, Ohio, where he met his wife of 62 years, Dorothy. To this union two children were born, William E. III and Tyrone H. Campbell.

William "Bill" retired after 27 years from Frankelite as a supervisor. During his time there he played softball with the company team and later participated in Ward 8 politics. After retiring he took a position at the Karamu Theater Lounge, working with Margaret Ford Taylor. He also sang at the Majestic Hotel and other clubs. He was an avid sports fan and for 40 years he and his family gathered every Sunday to watch his favorite team, The Cleveland Browns. Another of his favorite pastime was traveling with Dorothy and going to various casinos around the country.

During his life, Bill was always witty and outgoing. He loved to talk, joke, dance, and sing. He mentored many young men in his neighborhood who stopped by regularly to chat, seek advice, or just sit and watch sports. His door was always open. At the age of 89, Bill began having health issues. On four separate occasions, doctors told the family to prepare for the worst, but with Dorothy by his side, Bill continued to defy them until God called him home October 25, 2021.

He leaves all his love to his wife, Dorothy; daughter, Tonya Thomas (Hugh), sons: William "Billy" Campbell III (Ranette), Tyrone Campbell (LaMontica); grandchildren: Deja, Danielle, Brandon, Daniel, Emmanuel, Ronette and Chris; Great grandchildren: Jarrell, JaShaun, Chase, Alaia; God-children: Andre, Cory, Letitia, and Carmela.

Great grandfather on the way
