

Do No Stand at My Grave and Weep

Do not stand at my grave and weep,
I am not there, I do not sleep.

I am a thousand winds that blow.
I am the diamond glint on snow.
I am the sunlight on ripened grain,
I am the gentle autumn rain.

When you wake in the morning hush,
I am the swift, uplifting rush
of quiet birds in circling flight.
I am the soft starlight at night.

Do not stand at my grave and weep
I am not there, I do not sleep.
(Do not stand at my grave and cry.
I am not there,
I did not die).

Celebration of Life Obituary

Ecclesiastes 3:1 KJV

To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven:

A time to be born;

Mercier Carmichael, the fourth child of John and Martha Carmichael was born on March 18, 1930.

A time to die, A time to mourn;

She departed this life on February 5, 2022. Preceded in death by her parents and adoptive parents at the death of her mother in 1935, Samuel and Mary Dumas her mother's twin sister. Also preceded in death by her husband, Calvin, daughter, Cheryl Anne Moton, brother, Floyd and sisters, Mildred, Lena and Wyona.

A time to love, A time to embrace;

Mercier was married to Calvin Robinson on June 4, 1949. To this union were born three children: Calvin Jr., Cheryl Anne and Mercier.

A time to laugh, A time to dance;

Mercier was educated in the Cleveland Public schools as well as Charlotte, NC schools. She studied music from private teachers and also the Cleveland Institute of Music. She graduated from John Hay High School in 1948 and worked at the Social Security Administration and also Mt. Sinai Hospital. She was the East Side Coordinator for Project Learn in the seventies. At the death of her husband in 1980, she returned to Government Employment and retired from the IRS in 1992. Mercier began playing for the Mount Pleasant Church of God Choir when her son was an infant and celebrated 50 years there. Over the years she also held positions as organist, church secretary, Sunday school teacher, bible school director, pianist and teacher, member of Missionary Society, co-youth leader, women of the church, and the greeter ministry.

Mercier loved her church, traveling, working jigsaw puzzles and music. She traveled to Australia, New Zealand, London, Paris, Rome, Hawaii, California, British Columbia, Canada, Colorado, Georgia, New York and many other states.

In addition to her son, Calvin (Kim), daughter Mercier, she leaves to mourn her passing: her grandsons: Ryan, (Deidrinelle), Calvin III (Rachel), and Christian, great-grandchildren: Ryan Jr., Joaquin, Mia and Calvin Ray, and a host of nephews, cousins and friends.

Mercier wrote this Obituary in 2007. She asked her children to edit it as necessary.
