

Beverly

We have been to the depth of despair
We have cried until there are almost no more tears.
There is nothing in life that can prepare us for the death of those we hold most dear.

So, we all again must meet here
to face one of life's greatest fears, saying goodbye to someone we hoped would always be near. It is the heaviest load we will ever have to bear. But we are thankful for the many years, we have shared Beverly A mother, grandmother, sister, aunt and a friend your life on earth has come to end.

But the memories of the good times have already begun so many people you helped along the way never, never did you ever expect pay.

Always a bit of quick wit which some people did not get. I have to mention the casino, a place she always loved to go. Her love for soulful songs, which she always danced and sang along. We now will carry your life on in our thoughts and hearts. That way we will never have to part right now, the only relief from or grief is accepting and really believing you are at peace.

Obituary

Beverly Fulton, was born to the late Jacob and Emma Bennett on July 19, 1934, in Pittsburgh, Pa. She was the fourth child of ten children. She stayed strong and fought hard to her last peaceful breath on, March 26, 2022.

Beverly and her family lived on a chicken farm in Pa. Their parents taught them the value of hard work, and to be successful and get a good education. Beverly attended and graduated from the Pittsburgh Pennsylvania Public School System. In high school she stayed on the all-girl basketball team. After completing high school she started her family and had five boys, Kevin Griffin (deceased), Michael Fulton, Robert Fulton, James Fulton (deceased) and Roderick Fulton.

Later in 1964, Beverly relocated to help assist and take care of her parents along with her siblings to Cleveland, OH. In Cleveland she joined the Union Avenue Christian Missionary Alliance Church.

Her love and caring heart for people lead her to pursue a career in nursing. She went back to school and became a Licensed Practical Nurse. She worked as an LPN for St. Vincent Charity Hospital in Cleveland and later retired from McGregor Nursing Home.

Everyone who was around Beverly knew she was a bundle of joy. She loved to see and make people happy, and did whatever she could to make sure you were smiling. She loved to listen to her music and dance. Her famous saying was “I’m not complaining, I’m just explaining”, she lived those words to the fullest she never complained no matter what the case was. She always had a bright side to every story.

Beverly love to spend time with her ten grand and ten great-grandchildren. She leaves to cherish her memories, nana’s babies, James Fulton, Cory Fulton (Felicia), Robert Fulton III (deceased), Roderick Fulton Jr. (Margaret), Marques Fulton (Tinisha), Ciana, Carletta Fulton, Elaine Harris-Fulton (Eric), Michael Fulton Jr., and Camelle Fulton, GG’s babies Robert IV, Ariana, Andrew, Miles, Jasmine, Christian, Jordyn, Roderick III, Roselyn, Eric Jr., and soon to be granddaughter (Elaine), two loving sisters, Edith Henderson and Evelyn Horne and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

Humbly submitted,
The Family
