Do Not Stand At My Grave and Weep
 By: Mary Elizabeth Frye
 Do not stand at my grave and weep
 I am not there; I do not sleep.
 I am a thousand winds that blow,
 I am the diamond glint on snow,
 I am the gentle autumn rain.
 When you awaken in the morning's hush
 I am swift uplifting rush of quiet birds in circled flight. I am the soft stars that shine at night.
 Do not stand at my grave and cry,
 I am not there; I did not die.

Order of Service

Maleek Brooks

On February 11, 2003, Maleek Lathan Brooks, blessed Marshall Jr. and Tennille Hayden with his presence, born in East Cleveland, Ohio.

Maleek attended the Cleveland Public Schools with the concentration in the Charter School. Maleek will graduate on June 15, 2022, from the Regent High School.

Maleek loved to swim and he was a good at it. He was a member of the YMCA swim team. Maleek accepted Christ at a young age and was baptized at Mt. Moriah A.M.E. Church. He later joined New Freedom Ministries, where he was one of the original members of the Mime Ministry. He, his brother and two cousins inspired other youths to join this ministry. He also volunteered at the Cleveland Black Friday Business Expo.

He acquired a love of bikes and 4 wheelers from his dad. Maleek was affectionately known as "Meek" and "Leek Leek."

He was preceded in death by his grandfather, Marshall L. Brooks Sr.

He leaves to mourn his passing his mother, Tennille Nicole Hayden, his father, Marshall L. Brooks Jr (Kikema), three brothers, Marshall L. III, Martell L. and Marrell L. Brooks, two sisters, Marshayla and Kassiah, grandmothers, Jeannette Hayden and Lillian Brooks, grandfather, Randie Hall, uncles, Cornell, James, Arthur, Earnest and aunt, Ola. A special mention to Auntie Princess and we do not want to forget to mention the love of his life, Sydney Haywood. And a host of other relatives and friends.

Humbly submitted,
