

Tribute to Aunt Liz

We love you Aunt Liz

Aunt Liz, acknowledged Jehovah as the only true God. She embraced life and loved everyone and was loved by her family and friends. Aunt Liz, was kind, friendly, compassionate, strong willed, encouraging, considerate of other's feeling, and could make you laugh.

To Grandmother

All the things you use to do cooking dinner Sunday, making homemade stew, sitting for hours and telling us tales of how poor Jonah was swallowed by the whale, while working in your garden, pulling weeds. Wiping sweat from your brow, and gently planting seeds you are a special grandma, one that we adore. You taught us right from wrong and so much more.

Obituary

The Book of Life for the late Elizabeth Crowell, was opened in Redbank, New Jersey on, September 12, 1938. She was born to the union of Ben Peck and Anna Willis ,who preceded her in death. She was the youngest of three siblings.

Her parents sought to provide a bright future for her and her siblings, when they moved to Cleveland, Ohio in 1959. Elizabeth attended the Cleveland Public School system, She later moved to Phoenix City Alabama, where she met and married her husband, Willie McCoy, on June 26, 1965. She moved back to Cleveland with her husband and she started studying with the Jehovah Witnesses, in the early seventies. She dedicated her life to Jehovah on, February 19, 1978. When she got baptized she went door to door preaching. Her persistence and showing her love to others, encouraged different family members to dedicate their life to Jehovah.

Elizabeth Crowell, loving sister, devoted mother, aunt, proud grandmother and great grandmother and good to all who knew her. She always showed opened arms to everyone, and she had so much love for her family. Whenever any of us needed help with anything she would be there for her family.

After working 30 years at the City View Nursing Home, she became ill and wrote her final pages and her book of life was closed on, Thursday, August 11, 2022.

Preceding her in death also was her brother, Frank Taver, and sister Ruby Rita Morris.

She leaves to cherish her memories, one son, Tony Lee Crowell, her great nieces, Chinissia and Nikki, great-nephew, Michael , seven grandchildren, 9 great-grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and many friends.

Humbly submitted,
 The Family
