

KJV: Revelation 21:4

“ And He shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.

Obituary

Mae W. Perkins was born on September 26, 1936, in Lydia, South Carolina, to the parents of Robert Arthur and Thelma Lucas (both deceased).

She graduated in South Carolina and later came to Cleveland, Ohio in 1952. She held several jobs before working at Lester Industry in Bedford Heights, Ohio as a Quality Control Operator, until February 1999, where she retired.

She married Johnny Bacote and had six children from that union, Anthony, Johnny, Beverly, Timothy, Robert (deceased), and Tammie. She later married James Perkins on, October 18, 1992 and from this union gained three stepchildren, Deborah, James Jr., and Gerald.

Mae joined Anathoth Missionary Baptist Church in 1984 and there she joined the usher board, until her health began to decline. She loved sports, and followed her eldest son, all over town to his baseball and basketball games. She was a devout Jimmy Swaggart follower, and she watched him on her television all the time.

Mae transitioned from this world on, July 21, 2022. She will be greatly missed.

She is survived by her children, Anthony (Verline), Johnny, Beverly, Timothy, and Tammie, stepchildren, Deborah, James Jr., and Gerald, her sister, Jessie Lee, 14 grandchildren, and 28 great-grandchildren. Her most outstanding grandchild was, Rayshawn. A host of relatives and friends, including two special friends, Annie Bowman and Geraldine Killings.

Humbly submitted,
The family
