

In Loving Memory of
Cordelia Huffman

I am at rest, so don't cry. It will be easier as time goes by. I've done my best to live a good life. I knew if I did, I could be with Christ. As my body lies here, it's only a shell. God has called me home and my job, I've done well. I'm happy and very content. The things, I've done wrong, I repent. You know that its hard on earth, so you should not cry at death, but at birth. I have no worries, pain or tears, I love you all and this what I want you to do; put God first in your life, and I'll be seeing you!

Obituary

Cordelia Anne Huffman, was born on August 2, 1927, in Cleveland, Ohio. She was the 7th of 8 children to Fleming and Geneva Calloway, both of whom preceded her in death. She was also preceded in death by her brothers, and sisters Fleming Latrobe "Buster" Calloway, Natalie Hall, Leroy "Uncle Jimmy" Calloway, Charles "Uncle Tootie" Calloway, Lawrence "Uncle Jumbo" Calloway, Evelyn Childress, and Vivian Boyd Menifee. Cordelia attended Cleveland Public Schools, where she graduated from Central High School. She was employed by Stouffers's/Nestle located in Solon, Ohio, and retired after many (32) years of dedicated services.

Cordelia married Monroe Huffman Sr., in May of 1946 and to this union, Monroe Huffman Jr., and Lynn Huffman were born. Cordelia enjoyed playing cards with her various club members, dancing, traveling, reading, music, (Take Me To The King), and telling stories of her life. She was an outstanding storyteller. She always enjoyed some good ice cream and cake. If you happened to receive a card from her, there was always a little something inside. A poem, a little change and a lot of love. Cordelia loved attending and serving GOD at New Life At Calvary Church. Where she served as a dedicated member of the Guild and loved attending Bible Study. Cordelia spoke highly of and loved all of the pastors and church members.

Cordelia had a great memory, she loved discussing a wide range of current topics from food to politics. She was the family's last matriarch, whom everyone went to for comfort, assistance, encouragement, and a good laugh. Cordelia always had encouraging words and great advice to give to anyone willing to listen. She had a positive outlook on life

Cordelia was very proud of her family and spoke highly of her Mom and Dad, 7 brothers and sisters. She loved her grandchildren, great-grandchildren, great-great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, and cousins. Most of all she dearly loved her husband and two sons, who held a very special place in her heart.

Cordelia leaves to mourn her passing and cherish her memory: two sons; Monroe Huffman Jr., and Lynn Huffman, a loving daughter-in-law Sandra Huffman, four grandchildren; Donna Mims (Roger Jacobs), Dionne Huffman, Jermaine (Taneka) Glass, and Chaundry Glass, nine great-grandchildren; Maurice Mims, Martinique Mims, Jermain Glass Jr. (Kareece), Jalani Glass, DeiJah Glass, Jayda Glass, Jayanna Glass Jayden Glass, Jaylen Glass and two great great-grandchildren; Jaziah Glass and Sky'lah Bell, and a great great-granddaughter on the way. A host of loving nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and many treasured friends.
