

“Fly High”

Like the river that leads to the west, highly at its best, whispering to the air, softly behind the sky, not to be oblige by what mankind made to say. You were my child even through your pain! but what you couldn't see, was that you were always a part of me! You were made from chemistry, this voice came to me, then these gates open, my child you were always one of my spoken! And with these words came heaven's gates, because of your life, things will now start to change. You were the one I needed to open eyes, You were a great sacrifice beyond any equivocator. Through these words, the sky got much brighter, the gates open wide, smiles became heaven's wings. You were one of my perfect human beings, so don't worry I have already forgiven you, because you were willing to come with me..

Obituary

James Lee Thompkins Jr, was born November 10,1988, in Cleveland Ohio, at St. Luke’s hospital. He was born and raised in Cleveland Ohio, to the parents of, James Lee Thompkins Jr., and Marie Ann Jefferson. He worked and established his LLC, as a fitness trainer and enjoy cutting hair. In his free time he made time for helping others, and talking highly about religion and health. James’s religion started as a Baptist, then he just wanted to be for GOD. “He stated it’s something in all religion we can take from and at the end of the day, we all are searching for our GOD”.

He wanted to be so much in this world, and impact others in ways they probably never knew someone could. He was such a loving brother that when things felt dark, he brought light to any situation. He had his GED and wanted to start his mobile fitness business. He was a protector to so many and loved us deeply. He will truly be miss and nothing could ever change that. He loved being around his friends and family, this is where memories can always be held...

He leaves behind to mourn his parents: Marie Jefferson and James Lee Thompkins Sr., his children; Elijah Lee Thompkins and James Eli Thompkins, who loved their father more than anything on this earth, as well as their mother, Jelimar Alicea, he leaves six sisters; Tracy Worley (Patrick Worley Sr.), Monique Thompkins, Sandy Thompkins, Jazmine Thompkins, Asset Thompkins and Veronica Thompkins. And a host of other relatives and friends.

Humbly submitted,

The Family
