

Until We Meet Again
We think about you always,
we talk about you still.
You have never been forgotten,
and you never will.
We hold you close within our hearts
and there you will remain.
To walk and guide us through our lives
Until we meet again.

Obituary

Louella Bell, peacefully transitioned to eternal life surrounded by family on December 21, 2022. Louella was born on March 1, 1942, in Sardis, Alabama to the late Robert and Minnie Coker Sr. She attended Dumbarr High School in Bessemer, Alabama. Louella was united in holy matrimony to Robert Bell.

Louella and Robert came to Cleveland, Ohio, where she accepted Christ at an early age. Louella was a member of the Second Ebenezer Missionary Baptist Church, in Cleveland, Ohio serving as an active member of the usher board and a member of the church choir. As a member of the choir, her voice was inspirational and uplifting to all that received her Godly message to get closer to God.

Louella Bell had a fulfilling and challenging experience in her labor and political career. She was employed at the Euclid Park Nursing Home, and the Cleveland Metropolitan School District (CMSD), where she retired from. She was a member of the Eastern Star. She was also an activist for the rights for children to have free lunches in school, an honorary member of the Black on Black Crime Inc., a volunteer for voting rights, a supporter of the Black Women's Round Table, and a supporter of the Black Women's Rights to vote.

Her love for her family was phenomenal. She enjoyed singing, playing the piano, cooking, baking pies, fishing and listening to her favorite singers, which were, Shirley Caesar, Dorothy Norwood, and the Temptations. Louella opened her doors to many people that needed a helping hand. We know that there are so many wonderful memories, so please embrace them and share them, as we offer our love to you.

Louella was preceded in death by her son, Arthur "Bay-Bro" Coker, three brothers, Melvin Coker Sr. (Emma), Moses Coker (Barbara), and Robert Coker Jr. (Olivia), her two sisters, Rose Smith, (Elkanard), and Bertha Smith (Daniel).

Louella Bell leaves to cherish her memories her 5 loving children: Joyce Hood (Daryl), Tammie Walton, Olivia Walton, Yolanda Wells (William), and Carlwin Collins (Angela), her brother, James Coker (Marilyn), 12 grandchildren, Kelvin Coker (Donita), Natasha Declouet, Mario Bates, Maurice Bates, Tameka Archie, Rhemi Walton, Angelica Elder, Terrance Elder, Tyler Elder, Martina White, (Jermaine), Tatiana Collins, and Channele Collins, 5 godchildren, Melanie Coker, Christopher Haynes, Antonio Stallworth, Brandon Owens, and Rayshawn Young, 13 great-grandchildren. And a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Humbly submitted,
~The Family~
