Rev. Dr. Wendy Childress, Officiating

¹³Brothers and sisters, we do not want you to be uninformed about those who sleep in death, so that you do not grieve like the rest of mankind, who have no hope.

¹⁴ For we believe that Jesus died and rose again, and so we believe that God will bring with Jesus those who have fallen asleep in him.

1 Thessalonians 4:13-14

Acknowledgment

The family of Sharon Lynn Moon wishes to express their heartfelt appreciation for the kindness and sympathy extended during their bereavement. The cards, flowers, words of encouragement, and prayers have helped to sustain us during this very difficult time. You have been a source of both strength and solace to us. May God richly bless you and keep you in His perfect peace.

Good for a Giggle

Some people hold light
In their smile
Some people hold joy
In their laugh
Some people hold peace
In their voice

She Held
All
Yes, all three

Shay was a bundle of wittiness
Beautiful energy
And she was always good for a giggle
Infectious positivity
A giggle with Shay would make your day

Now her light
Will be in our smiles
Her joy
Will be in our laughs
Her peace
Will be in our hearts

As we hold onto her memory
Knowing she's giggling
Having a good ole keke
With Karen, her sister, her best friend
Cradle in the Lord's hands

P.S. Thanks for all the late-night giggles playing Mall Madness.
It's still one of my favorite games and most cherished memories.

A Love Letter To Our Daughter

To our daughter Sharon Lynn Moon affectionately named Fuzzy by your dad and known as Shay Shay to family members,

Oh Sharon Lynn, your dad and I never thought that we would be the ones giving you both a homegoing, we always thought it would be the other way around. We thought you and your sister would be giving us our homegoing. That shows you what we know, nothing. God has all the answers. But we both know this, God let me and your dad have you for 58 years, and Karen for 55 years, and we are so blessed. We love you both so much. We miss you both. We have no complaints. God knows what's best. We know where you both are; well, happy, and at peace with the Lord. And we both know that we will see you again. So, until we meet again, we love you both.

*Love,
Your mom and dad*

Bye Fuzzy, I'll see you later. Love, Dad

A Celebration

On February 6, 1964, in Cleveland, Ohio Raymond and Margaret Moon, welcomed their second beautiful daughter, Sharon Lynn into the world. Raymond, affectionately gave her his own special nickname, “Fuzzy.” Her best friend and big sister, Karen (deceased) was excited about Sharon’s arrival too.

Sharon was known to family and friends, as “Shay” or “Shay Shay.” Shay attended Cleveland Public Schools and graduated in June of 1982 from John Adams High School. An entrepreneur at heart, she had her own Notary Service and another business named Shay’s Easy Biz. Shay’s business name was apropos to her nature—easy going.

Shay was humble with a gentle spirit. To know Shay was to love Shay. She had a positive attitude and calm demeanor. She accepted Christ at a young age, and He was truly a light unto her path, because through all situations and storms, Shay’s response was, “Don’t worry God’s got this.”

of Life

If you spent any time in her presence you had the opportunity to experience her infectious laughter and genuine kindness. She enjoyed music of all genres and had quite the collection. Shay was also a collector of doves which is also a testament to and symbolic of her peaceful disposition.

On Friday, December 23, 2022, the Lord call Sharon home. Her sister, Karen welcomed her. She will be greatly missed by her parents, Raymond and Margaret Moon; four aunts, four uncles, and a host of relatives and friends. We will miss her, but she will live on in our hearts and memories. We will reminisce about her laughter, and even weep. As we do so, may her gentle spirit, genuine kindness and love strengthen and comfort us as we remember Shay’s heartfelt word’s “Don’t worry God’s got this.”
