

Letter to My Son. . .

They say there is a reason
They say time will heal
Neither time or reason will change the way I feel.
Gone are the days we used to share,
But in my heart, you are always there.
The gates of memories will never close
I miss you more than anybody knows.
Till we Meet Again.

Always and Forever,
Mom

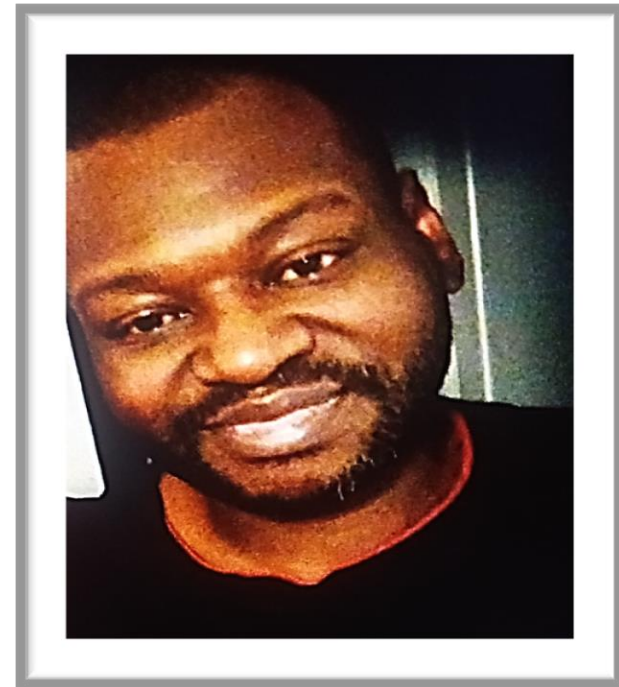

Acknowledgements

The family of Jon Phillip Wilson Dixon wishes to thank you all for the many kind expressions of sympathy in our time of sorrow, sharing our prayers, today and tomorrow. Whatever you did to console our hearts, we thank you so much, whatever the part. Special thanks to Dr. David L. Hunter and the church family of Bright Star Missionary Baptist Church for all you have done during our time of bereavement.

Obituary

Jon Phillip Wilson Dixon entered eternal rest on August 7, 2023 in Cleveland Ohio. He was predeceased by his father Leonard Dixon, Sr., brother Leonard Dixon, Jr. and sister Drucella Dixon.

Jon enjoyed his computer games and enjoyed listening to music and was very interested in learning to play instruments. Sports was another one of his passions. He worked various jobs in the community as well as different factory positions.

Jon leaves to mourn his mother, Catherine Wilson, his sister Chawanda Wilson (Cleveland, Ohio), brother Kenneth Dixon (Cleveland, Ohio) niece Kathleen Duckworth (Cleveland, Ohio), nephews Tony and Antwan Duckworth (Cleveland, Ohio), great niece, aunts, cousins and other relatives and friends.
