

“Thank You For Being Dad”

Dad!!! you were one of the strongest, wisest, funniest man I know we were lucky to have you. No man is perfect. You were perfect for us. There was never a time you weren't there so we won't tell you bye, because it hurts. We will say see you later. No man will equal up to you. We love you endlessly !!!

Tierrha McLoyd

Dad

My mind still talks to you, my heart still looks for you, but my soul knows you are at peace

Always in my heart.

Tysha McLoyd

“Uncle”

A golden heart stop beating, it broke our hearts to see you go. Your time here on earth has served its purpose. Your soul has inspired many peoples. Your smile and laughter has made memories . As I lift my head & gather my memories of you, I picture you dancing, I smile. Your golden wings was ready but our hearts were not, the Sun was set for you to walk the golden Road to Heaven, cry a little, miss me a little, but let me go. I love you.

Timothy McLoyd was born in Oscoda Michigan, to John Henry McLoyd and Ruby Hudson McLoyd, Tim was the second out of five children.

Timothy lived in Cleveland, Ohio, worked and retired from the Cleveland Police Department, Cleveland Water Department and also did side jobs as a security guard.

Tim graduated in 1976 from East High School. He met Bernadette Stewart in 1977, in that union there were six children. Timothy accepted Christ Jesus as his Lord and Savior during his teenage years.
