

Gone But Not Forgotten

Don't think of him as gone away his journey's just begun, life holds so many facets this earth is only one.

Just think of him as resting from the sorrows and the tears.
In a place of warmth and comfort where there are no days and years.

Think how he must be wishing that we could know today.
How nothing but our sadness can really pass away.

And think of him as living in the hearts of those he touched for nothing loved is ever lost and he was loved so much.

Obituary

Floyd Binder was born on January 10, 1954, to Floyd Henry and Dorothy Mae Binder (nee Crews). The oldest of 6 siblings.

Born and raised in Cleveland, Ohio, he attended Cleveland Public Schools and graduated from Benedictine High School. He met and married Carol Porter, who preceded him in death.

Floyd joined the United States Army and received commendations for pistol and small arms weaponry. He received special qualification for hand grenade training and marksmanship.

A couple of Floyd’s passions were training dogs, detailing cars, and fishing in his spare time. He joined the Assembly Baptist Church in Cleveland, Ohio, where he served as Security and a driver for Rev. Raimon A. Prince. As part of the Assembly Baptist Church, Floyd entered the ministry and began the process for Ordination.

Floyd’s battle with cancer ended on March 12, 2024. He was preceded in death by his parents.

He is survived by his brother, Michael Binder of Cleveland, Ohio, sisters; Letitia Harper, Carmela Napoleon, Arnetta Carson of Cleveland, Ohio and Shanita Willis of Las Vegas, “Mom”, Velma Carson of Cleveland, OH, and a host of nieces, nephews, other family members and friends.

He will be dearly missed by his church family and friends at Assembly Baptist Church.

Humbly submitted,
The Family
