

Do Not Stand At My Grave and Weep

Do not stand at my grave and weep;
I am not there, I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow.
I am the diamond glints on snow.
I am the sunlight on ripened grain.
I am the gentle autumn rain.
When you awaken in the morning's hush
I am the swift uplifting rush of quiet birds in circled flight.
I am the soft stars that shine at night.
Do not stand at my grave and cry;
I am not there. I did not die.

Obituary

Brian D. Perry was born on August 18, 1961, to Saunders Harris and Barbara Perry in Cleveland, Ohio.

Brain attended Cleveland Public Schools. He obtained a degree in Bricklaying and Sociology. For ten years he managed the Zeppe's Pizzeria Restaurant and did construction work in Columbus. He was married to Dolly for ten years.

He was known as the jokester. Anyone who knew Brian knew he liked to joke around. He also enjoyed watching his favorite show on tv, called the Swamp People where people handled man eating alligators.

Brain was preceded in death by his grandparents, Willie and Regina Perry, his uncle, Arthur Perry a niece, Shalitha Perry and his best friend and brother-in-law, Darrell Barnes.

Brian departed on April 25, 2024. He leaves behind his mother, Barbara, his four children, Quanisha, Regina, Joshua and Brianna, six sisters, Rhonda, Darlene, Constance Salett (Michael), Monique, Victoria, and Kendra, three aunts, Rita, Delores, and Shirley and two uncles, Willie Perry and Bootsy and a host of other family members and friends.
