

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free I'm following the path God has laid you see.
I took His hand when I heard Him call I turned my back and left it all. I could not stay another day, to laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way
I found peace at the close of the day.
If my parting has left a void then fill it with remembered joy a friendship shared a laugh, a kiss, oh yes these things I too will miss. Be not burdened with times of sorrow
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow. My life's been full, I savored much good friends, good times, a loved one's touch. Perhaps my time seemed all too brief, don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your hearts and peace to thee
God wanted me now; He set me free

The Day God Took You Home
A million times I've need you a million times I've cried, If love alone could have saved you you never would have died. In life we love you dearly in death I love you still. In my heart you hold a space where no one can ever fill. It broke my heart to lose you, but you didn't go alone for part of me went with you,
The day God took you home.

Obituary

Lisa Renne Alexander Brownlee 58, received her wings and entered into eternal peace on Monday, May 6, 2024, at 7:35 p.m.

Lisa was born in Chicago, Illinois, on March 15, 1966, to her parents the late Edgar and Minnie Alexander. Lisa will be forever remembered by her devoted brothers, Edger Alexander (Crystal) and Sanford Alexander (Debbie).

She was raised in Cleveland, Ohio where she was baptized at Olivet Institutional Baptist Church and accepted Christ at an early age. Lisa was educated in the Cleveland Public School System. While venturing out to seek her career endeavors, she gained employment at Motel 6 , Jack Racino and Damother Special Service, where she worked alongside her sister, doing what she loved to do and that was cleaning.

Lisa enjoyed spending time with her children and grandchildren, she loved to cook for them and enjoyed laughing and joking around with them. Her family meant the world to her. She also enjoyed helping people in their time of need. Just like the time she was there for the father of her children, Tyrone Overton when he experienced a tragic loss. She touched the lives of many people with her welcoming and open heart.

She leaves to cherish her memory her beloved children Tashay Alexander, Jerome Alexander (Tahana), Gerell Alexander, Porsche Alexander, a host of stepchildren, 15 grandchildren and a host of other family members and friends.

Humbly submitted,
The Family
