

In Loving Memory
A heart stopped beating
two shining eyes at rest.
God broke our hearts to prove,
He will only take the best.
Though her smile is gone forever,
and her hand we cannot touch,
we still have so many memories,
of the one we loved so much

Obituary

Josie Mae Williams was born April 27, 1935, in Phenix City, Alabama to Mr. John L. Williams and Perline Williams. She embraced her faith early in life and was baptized maintaining her unwavering belief through all of life's challenges..

Throughout her life, Josie lived in Baltimore, Maryland, Rochester, New York and Paterson, New Jersey before settling in Cleveland, Ohio in 1966.

March 1, 1969, Josie married Rev. Thomas L. Mais with Rev. C. H. Phillips officiating. She lovingly became a caregiver to Shephard and Thomas Mais Jr. and extended her care to the other Mais children. Josie was dedicated to honest work, using her talents as a caregiver, nutrition specialist, and press operator to serve others.

Josie earned an Associate of Arts Degree from Tri-C Cuyahoga Community College.

Josie Mais passed away at the age of 89 on July 4, 2024, at 4:05 am, at Parma Care Center in Parma, Ohio. She was the seventh of nine children born to John L. Williams and Perline Williams and was the last surviving sibling. Her nephew, Willie Echols remarked, "God created the heaven and the earth in six days and on the seventh day He rested. Josie being the seventh child, was the last to take her rest"

Josie (Tee) Mais join her siblings W.C. Jackson, Effie (Mike) Williams, / Isaiah Jackson, Eckle Lee Long/James Thornton, Girvis Lee (Paul) Williams, James (Skeet) Williams, Julia Bertha (Stocking) Williams, Sammie Lee Williams (Odette) (Georgia Douglas), and Robert L. Williams (Rosa) in eternal rest.

Josie leaves behind, Cornell Johnson, Shephard Mais, Andrean Mais, Louis Mais, Aveia Morris and a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

Respectfully submitted,
The Mais Family
