

*To the living, I am gone,
To the sorrowful, I will never return,
To the angry, I was cheated,
But to the happy, I am at peace,
And to the faithful, I have never left.
I cannot speak, but I can listen.
I cannot be seen, but I can be heard.
So as you stand upon a shore gazing at a beautiful sea,
As you look upon a flower and admire its simplicity,
Remember me.*

*Remember me in your heart:
Your thoughts, and your memories,
Of the times we loved,
The times we cried,
The times we fought,
The times we laughed.
For if you always think of me, I will never have gone.*

OBITUARY

Sharon Lee Lewis Pratt, affectionately known as "Cookie", was born in Cleveland, OH October 30, 1946. The fourth of five daughters to the union of Albert Louis Fann and Helen Marie Harris. She spent a lot of her childhood in Chagrin Falls. Sharon, along with her siblings and parents spent a lot of time in acting classes at Karamu Playhouse. She was quite proud of being cast as one of the King's daughters in Karamu's production of "The King and I."

Sharon attended East High School where she learned to sew and cook. Preparation for becoming a home maker and mother to her three children: Kimberley, Glenn, and Modestiy. In addition, she and her second husband adopted and raised two teenaged sons, Christopher and David Horton and later became temporary guardians to her great nephew, James Fisher Jr (Squeak).

During her early twenties, Cookie found stable employment as a mixologist at Arts Seafood and The Waiters Club on Cedar Ave in Cleveland. Many years later, she became one of the first operators and radio dispatchers at Americab taxi company.

Cookie loved decorating, cooking, baking, and playing Bid Wist with friends and family, while enjoying pots and pots of coffee. Her love of coffee led to the formation of "The Coffee Klatch", which included her sisters Alberta, Bev, and Estelle, and sister-in-law/best friend, Angie. She was also a member of the Postal Bowling League at Ambassador Superior Lanes.

Cookie lived most of her life in Cleveland, but later moved to Surprise, AZ. She lived a long, busy life. She married three times; Her first was to high school sweetheart, Phillip H Lewis. They were married for 14 years before divorcing but remained good friends until his death in 2016. She later married Raymond J Lewis and was married until his death in 2000; later while in AZ, she married Larry Pratt until his death in 2014. When her third husband passed, she moved back home to Cleveland where she spent her remaining days with her family.

Sharon left this earth on Monday, March 17, 2025, while resting peacefully in her home. She was preceded in death by her parents, four of her sisters; Alberta, Estelle, Beverly, and Tracy, her three husbands; Philip, Raymond, and Larry. She leaves to mourn; sisters, Shelley Fann Peterson, Melanie Fann, Danette Sheppard Vaughn, brother Albert "Joeko" Fann Jr, cousin Gary Bivins; children, Kimberley Johnson, Abdul Hakeem Muhammed (AKA Glenn), Modestiy Settles (Leonard), Dane Horton, David Horton (Robin), and James Fisher Jr. (great nephew), grandsons; Glenn Jr., Kartell (Kate), Kelvin, Kameron (Lauren), Kortez (Valencia), Leonard (Lucky) III, Lorenzo, and London, granddaughter Khamari, great niece Jeneen; great grandchildren; Jayden, Gabriel, Kymera, Madison, Rhiley, Kelvin Jr., Karter, Kayson, and Grayson, and a host of family and friends.
